

Gikas Manalis is the General Director of “Athens Exchange S.A.”, responsible for the division of Listed Companies, Clearing, Settlement & Registry division and the Risk Management department. Mr. Manalis formerly served as General Manager of the Corporate Operations division, within the “Hellenic Exchanges S.A.”.

Mr. Manalis was formerly the CEO of a Securities Company from 1999 up to 2000.

He started his career at the National Bank of Greece (1981-1999) where he held several key positions, among them within the Strategic Planning, Financial Control and Treasury divisions.

He studied Business Administration in Greece (University of Piraeus 1978), Banking & Finance in U.K. (M.A. 1987) and also holds a Ph.D. from City University (1993).

He has extensive research field experience and publications in Greek and international referee journals, on issues regarding the structure and operation of the Greek capital market. He has taught at the Panteios University whilst he has also been appointed lecturer at the Athens Economic University.

He is married and a father of three children.