

Marijan Cingula graduated at the University of Zagreb and awarded Master of Science in Economics and PhD at the same University. Attended a list of short-term specializations on: Capital Market Development, Restructuring with Workers Shares, Investment Funds Management and Commercial Mediation.

He is now full professor of Strategic Management, Organization, Entrepreneurship and Corporate Governance at the Faculty of Economics and Business, University of Zagreb and Board member with Zagreb Stock Exchange, Metal Industry Varazdin and Medjimurje Construction Cakovec.

He is elected President of the National Association Croatian Accountant and he was the first president of Croatian Association of Certified Board Members. He is Advisory Editor for Journal of International Research Publications: Economy & Business, published by Foundation Science & Education, Burgas, Bulgaria and member of the Editorial board of the Journal of Accounting, Auditing and Finance, published in Zagreb.